

United States Senate

May 6, 2024

The Honorable Patty Murray
Chair
Committee on Appropriations
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

The Honorable Susan Collins
Vice Chair
Committee on Appropriations
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Chair and Vice Chair:

I certify that neither I nor my immediate family has a pecuniary interest in any of the congressionally directed spending items that I have requested in the Fiscal Year 2025 Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Bill, consistent with the requirements of paragraph 9 of Rule XLIV of the Standing Rules of the Senate. None of the entities for which I have requested congressionally directed spending are for-profit entities.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Laphonza Butler". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Laphonza Butler
United States Senator

Butler, Laphonza(D-CA) Labor and Health and Human Services
Congressionally Directed Spending Requests

Recipient Name	Project Purpose	Project Location	Amount Requested ($000)
Reading Is Fundamental	Funds would be used to provide free print books to PreK- Grade 8 students and free digital library access of nearly 1,000 titles to PreK- Grade 3 students.	Fresno CA	$1,500
The Chrysalis Center	Funds would be used to help San Fernando Valley residents overcome barriers to employment and obtain jobs that will support self-sufficiency. Participants will be assisted in obtaining and maintaining jobs in the public, private, and non-profit sectors.	Los Angeles CA	$1,450
Community Initiatives	Funds would be used to establish 10 new locations for hosting book kiosks and programming with pop-up readings, mini-theaters, and other library gatherings.	Los Angeles CA	$2,400
Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority (LAHSA)	Funds would be used to support the Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority in leasing whole buildings and/or a blocks of units to assist people experiencing homelessness.	Los Angeles County CA	$1,150
UC Davis Health (UC Davis Children's Hospital)	Funding would support a center of excellence for evidence-based, community-informed, and comprehensive prevention and response to childhood trauma, and promoting childhood and community resilience through longitudinal and integrated care.	Sacramento CA	$1,757
University of California, Santa Cruz	Funds would support equipment, installation, and materials needed to develop a robust arts enrichment program for children.	Santa Cruz CA	$700
County of Alameda	Fund would be used for mobile offices to provide public assistance, outreach, public health services, aging services, and laundry assistance, as well as respond to countywide disaster emergency response for individuals with limited mobility access or who are homebound.	Alameda County CA	$1,570
Covenant House California	Funding will enable Covenant House California to expand its mental health interventions for youth experiencing homelessness to Northern California. It will allow for the hiring of a clinical director in the Bay Area and an incentivization program for MSW interns who provide therapies.	Alameda County, Santa Clara County, and Santa Cruz County CA	$321
Coalition for Humane Immigrant Rights of Los Angeles	Funds will support youth programming including academic resources, financial aid resources, leadership development, and mentoring, as well as working to reduce the risk of mental health or substance use disorders.	Alameda, Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino, Riverside, Tulare, Placer Counties CA	$500
TGR Foundation	Funds would be used to incorporate valuable outdoor learning into our inquiry-based nature classes offered at the TGR Learning Lab in Anaheim, CA.	Anaheim CA	$400
Adventist Health Bakersfield	Funding will allow clinical teams to conduct complex surgeries for neuro, cranial, and spine patients each year.	Bakersfield CA	$1,128
Barstow Community College	The funding would be used to provide comprehensive mental health services to the underserved and often overlooked rural areas of Barstow, Lenwood, Newberry Springs, Daggett, Yermo, Hinkley, Ludlow, Baker, and Ft. Irwin.	Barstow CA	$750

Community Initiatives	Funds would be used to expand Summer Youth Fellowship opportunities targeted towards gifted students who lose ground academically during summer because they are working to help support their families.	Boyle Heights CA	$250
Mono County, California	Funds would provide repairs and modification of existing Emergency Medical Services facilities in Mono County.	Bridgeport CA	$1,200
Butte County, California	Funding will be used to conduct a feasibility study for the development of a regional substance use disorder treatment facility, which would provide acute care for Butte County residents and surrounding communities.	Butte County CA	$1,500
New Village Arts, Inc.	Funds would be used to support the community enrichment programs taking place at the Dea Hurston New Village Arts Center in Carlsbad, California.	Carlsbad CA	$100
California State University, Dominguez Hills	Funding would allow for renovation of current student health offices, establishing a peer support network, and providing workforce development and mental health career pathways support.	Carson CA	$3,000
California Black Womens Collective Empowerment Institute	Funds would support pathway programs that help black women secure employment opportunities in public, non-traditional, and emerging sectors.	Carson CA	$1,250
Rancho San Antonio Boys Home, Inc.	Funding will support the expansion of the neurofeedback program to address complex trauma in children and youth, including those involved with the Los Angeles County juvenile justice and child welfare systems and youth experiencing substance abuse challenges.	Chatsworth CA	$2,320
Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE)	Funding will support a project which will offer middle school students a weekly in-person and hands-on experiment, allowing them to explore STEM topics such as Molecule Structures and Processes, Ecosystem Dynamics, Biological Evolution, Earth Systems, Engineering Design, and Chemical Reactions.	City of Industry CA	$236
Parents Anonymous Inc	Funds would be used to prevent and treat child abuse and neglect by addressing the underlying mental health concerns of diverse, underserved parents, children, and youth in the San Gabriel Valley, Los Angeles County, by providing free weekly parents anonymous support groups.	Claremont CA	$2,000
City of Concord	Funds would be used to establish a permanent home for the Contra Costa Family Justice Center, a crucial resource hub for individuals impacted by domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, elder abuse, and human trafficking.	Concord CA	$3,300
Leaven Kids, Inc.	Funds would be used to support children with limited or no access to high-quality after-school programs in neighborhoods that are disproportionately impacted by crime and poverty.	Corona CA	$468
Heritage Group Homes, Inc.	Funding will expand the reach of programs providing youth (including youth involved with the Juvenile Justice system) and adults with behavioral health support, and medication management.	Covina CA	$990

Kidsave	Funds would be used to support the EMBRACE pilot program, provides targeted resources to support Black youth in foster care in Los Angeles, including connection events with prospective families, peer-to-peer support, and mental health counseling.	Culver City CA	$478
NeuroLab 360	Funds would be used to expand and improve the spinal cord injury and paralysis rehabilitation program serving residents of San Diego County and Southern California, helping patients walk again and live healthy, active lives with advanced health technology.	Encinitas CA	$483
American Diabetes Association	Funding will support a project which seeks to ensure that children with diabetes are medically safe at school and treated equitably.	Entire State CA	$1,469
Junior Achievement of San Diego County, Inc	Funds would be used to expand and renovate a new Junior Achievement facility to empower underserved communities and school districts.	Escondido CA	$2,000
County of Humboldt	Funding will be used to help build a new Public Health laboratory in order to adequately protect the environment and people of Northern California.	Eureka CA	$5,000
Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Fresno	Funding will expand services to support homelessness prevention, provide safe and stable housing and tackle food insecurity among vulnerable populations.	Fresno CA	$1,500
State Center Community College District	Funds would be used to provide accessible and affordable training programs to ensure residents are empowered and can secure stable employment in healthcare.	Fresno CA	$400
Marjaree Mason Center	Funds would support a 24/7 Crisis Response and Emergency Shelter service at one of the largest domestic violence agencies in California.	Fresno County CA	$2,500
California State University Fullerton	Funds would support the Speech and Hearing Clinic, which prepares students for careers in speech pathology through an active learning environment and provides speech, language, and cognitive therapy services to the community at no cost.	Fullerton CA	$575
Thomas House Temporary Shelter	Funds support a transitional shelter for unhoused families to have their basic needs met and a safe place to reside while actively working towards economic empowerment and addressing the root cause of what led them to become unhoused. The program provides housing, food, and basic provisions.	Garden Grove CA	$290
Glendale Adventist Medical Center	Funds would be used to upgrade the Structural Heart Disease Program at Adventist Health Glendale. New equipment will help reduce the barriers to treatment for elderly patients by mitigating the need for high-risk procedures.	Glendale CA	$1,000
South Orange County Community College District	Funds would be used to expand Irvine Valley College's mental health services program by hiring a Neurobehavioral Psychologist to perform testing, diagnosis, and treatment of ADHD and other learning difficulties.	Irvine CA	$400
South Orange County Community College District	Funds would be used for Outreach and recruitment to target populations, with strategic recruitment to females, which include: 1) Un-employed and under-employed adults seeking to advance their career; 2) foster youth ages 18-25; and 3) Veterans.	Irvine CA	$655

Pacific Symphony Association	Funds would be used to support Education and Enrichment Programs throughout Orange County based in the classroom.	Irvine CA	$2,000
City of La Habra	Funds would be used to provide outreach, career support, grant and college application guidance, resource connection, and health and social programs for youth and young adults, as well as seniors and veterans.	La Habra CA	$800
The Regents of the University of California; University of California San Diego	Funds would be used to supplement standard clinical pharmacy training with curricula tailored to meet the health needs of underserved populations in Southern California.	La Jolla CA	$2,500
The Regents of the University of California; University of California San Diego	Funds would be used to support student scholarships and stipends, workshops and materials costs, and graduate student personnel salaries and stipends at the University Health Sciences Institute.	La Jolla CA	$2,250
Save the Children Federation, Inc.	Funding will go to providing a continuum of kindergarten readiness programming and community impact projects designed to create equitable access.	Lake Los Angeles and Tulare County CA	$1,370
Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health	Funds would be used for a 16-bed adult crisis residential treatment program (CRTP), which will be located on the site of the High Desert Restorative Care Village in Lancaster, CA.	Lancaster CA	$1,500
Loma Linda University Children's Hospital	Funds would be used to establish a center at an existing Loma Linda University Children's Hospital building in the Coachella Valley to provide trauma-informed, multi-disciplinary medical care for children.	Loma Linda CA	$1,597
City of Long Beach	Funds would be used to fill gaps in the mental health care system by reaching underserved populations in a variety of geographic settings.	Long Beach CA	$1,594
City of Long Beach	Funds would be used to introduce Long Beach area youth to careers in aviation with a three-year pilot program that includes paid employment for high school students, field trips, and scholarships for aviation-related community college studies.	Long Beach CA	$1,100
City of Long Beach	Funds would be used to support the Community Crisis Response (CCR) Program, which responds to non-emergency 911 calls in West and South Long Beach.	Long Beach CA	$1,476
Long Beach Community College District	Funding will address the national and local shortage of generator and engine technicians. Long Beach City College has created a two-course certificate that prepares students for local entry-level, in-demand jobs.	Long Beach CA	$200
The Trevor Project	Funds will develop and launch a pilot program tailoring crisis intervention training to the needs of first responders and shelter staff who served the unhoused community in Central City East.	Los Angeles CA	$1,050
White Memorial Medical Center, dba Adventist Health White Memorial	Funds would be used to enhance primary care services and care coordination for low-income Los Angeles residents in East Los Angeles, Boyle Heights, and Montebello communities by addressing a critical provider shortage.	Los Angeles CA	$2,000
Homeboy Industries	Funds will provide quality fresh meals to food insecure, economically disadvantaged, elder, and geographically limited populations and create jobs for formerly incarcerated individuals.	Los Angeles CA	$952

A Place Called Home	Funds would be used to expand socioemotional, clinical, and case management support and tools to help young people in South Central Los Angeles build resilience, overcome adversity, and make affirmative life decisions.	Los Angeles CA	$496
The House Institute Foundation	Funds would be used to establish the Temporal Bone Lab, which supports surgical training, research and development, and educational programming to improve immediate and long-term positive health outcomes for patients.	Los Angeles CA	$281
Heart of Los Angeles Youth, Inc.	Funds would be used to establish a satellite model of holistic and robust education, enrichment, and wellness programs at Augustus Hawkins Nature Park (AHNP) in South LA.	Los Angeles CA	$582
City of Los Angeles	Funds would be used to strengthen an extended residential drug treatment pilot program for people experiencing homelessness.	Los Angeles CA	$5,000
EmpowHer Institute Inc	Funding will support expanding social-emotional learning, mentoring, and skills-based learning classes to BIPOC girls at multiple Title I middle and high schools in Los Angeles County.	Los Angeles CA	$1,000
Optimist Boys Home and Ranch	Funding will be used to deliver evidence-based skill-enhancement and behavioral health curriculum to foster youth and their caregivers to improve outcomes in the foster care program.	Los Angeles CA	$620
Vista Del Mar Child & Family Services	Funding will go to support capacity building for the expansion of substance use disorder prevention, early intervention, and treatment services that simultaneously address co-occurring mental and behavioral health conditions.	Los Angeles CA	$1,324
Best Buddies International, Inc.	Funding will go to establishing a global volunteer movement that creates opportunities for one-to-one friendships, integrated employment, leadership development, and inclusive living for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.	Los Angeles CA	$500
Children's Hospital Los Angeles	Funding will support a virtual nursing program with the vision of transforming staffing and workflow models to enhance nurse well-being and increase retention of highly skilled teams.	Los Angeles CA	$1,950
Koreatown Youth and Community Center, Inc.	Funding will support Youth Educational Services and Enhancement (YESE) program serving recently immigrated at-risk youth struggling with poverty and language barrier.	Los Angeles CA	$1,000
Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science	Funds would be used to support design development and construction costs for the new Health Professions Education Building that would house the four-year medical education program and other academic programs at CDU.	Los Angeles CA	$5,000
A World Fit For Kids	Funds would be used to serve 400 additional youth across 14 Los Angeles Unified School District after-school sites.	Los Angeles CA	$500
Rescuing Leftover Cuisine	Funds would be used to redistribute 278,375 surplus meals to Angelenos facing food insecurity, backing the LHHS-ACF Children and Families Services Programs.	Los Angeles CA	$133

Common Threads	Funds would be used to create an adapted nutrition education curriculum that supports mental well-being and test an adapted PERMA (Positive Emotion, Engagement, Relationships, Meaning, Achievement) evaluation tool designed specifically for measuring behavior change in students.	Los Angeles CA	$200
Los Angeles Conservation Corps	Funds would expand opportunities for paid work experience and on-the-job training for young people, as well as benefit the environment and the community.	Los Angeles CA	$883
Latino Theater Company	Funds would be used to provide training and employment opportunities to some of Los Angeles' most marginalized and underserved populations.	Los Angeles CA	$1,500
Jenesse Center, Inc.	Funds would be used to address the multi-faceted barriers to safety and self-sufficiency that are experienced by low-income victims of domestic violence in South Los Angeles through intervention and prevention programs and services.	Los Angeles CA	$750
Loyola Marymount University	Funding will support a two-year pilot project will serve service member, preparing them with an academic credential and professional development in behavioral health professions.	Los Angeles CA	$2,029
Para Los Niños	Funds would expand available mental health and case management services for vulnerable children and families at risk of or currently experiencing homelessness.	Los Angeles CA	$500
AltaMed Health Services Corporation	Funds would be used to train 250 Licensed Vocational Nurses, Certified Nursing Assistants, and Registered Nurses through a transformative health workforce partnership with the University of La Verne and the Annenberg School of Nursing.	Los Angeles CA	$1,016
Los Angeles County Office of Education	Funds would be used to address the sever staffing crisis in early education and offer opportunities for development and advancement in the prekindergarten workforce pipeline.	Los Angeles County CA	$998
Los Angeles Community College District	Project would support establishing a Fareless System Initiative Pilot Program for Los Angeles Community College student riders across 21 colleges in the county.	Los Angeles County CA	$2,466
San Gabriel Valley Council of Governments	Funds would be used to provide paid job training, case management support, and wrap-around services to people who are experiencing or at risk of experiencing homelessness.	Los Angeles County CA	$4,000
Chinatown Service Center	Funding will increase access to youth and young adults in need of mental health, substance use disorder and crisis services.	Los Angeles and Alhambra CA	$1,000
AltaMed Health Services Corporation	Funds would expand mental/behavioral health prevention and intervention services into four new school districts in Los Angeles and Orange County. Services will include 1) behavioral health preventive education, 2) mental health awareness events, 3)group therapy.	Los Angeles and Orange Counties CA	$838
Equality California Institute	Funds support expansion of California's LGBTQ+ Leadership and Civic Engagement Pipeline by increasing civic representation at all levels of government, and ensuring all people are empowered to be leaders in their communities.	Los Angeles and statewide CA	$530

Big Brothers Big Sisters Association of California, Inc.	Funding would be used to significantly expand mentor recruitment initiatives across the state.	Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, San Francisco, Fresno, Riverside, San Bernardino, Placer, Alameda, Humboldt, San Luis Obispo, Sacramento, Ventura Counties CA	$1,500
Special Needs Network, Inc.	Funds would be used to address critical needs within California's underserved communities by focusing on workforce development, job and vocational training, and community food truck innovation initiatives that provide access to healthier, affordable meals.	Los Angeles, Valencia, and Bakersfield CA	$1,000
Valley Children's Healthcare	Funding will to combine with private dollars to purchase additional equipment for its interprofessional simulation program.	Madera CA	$900
Boys & Girls Clubs of Contra Costa	Funds will be used to expand youth services provided by the Boys & Girls Club of Contra Costa, including a new portable building and extended hours.	Martinez CA	$1,300
Neighborhood Healthcare	Funding will be used for replacing existing Menifee Health Center with a built-to-suit facility to accommodate expanded services for increased community needs.	Menifee CA	$6,342
Merced Community College District	Funds will support the opening of the Agriculture Innovation Center to provide educational opportunities for California's Central Valley agricultural workforce.	Merced CA	$3,208
University of California, Merced	Funding will equip UC Merced to offer anatomy and other pre-health courses to support experiences in nursing, pharmacy, dentistry, physical therapy, etc. in addition to medical training.	Merced CA	$3,500
Merced Community College District	Funds would be used to repair and upgrade the existing Allied Health building to accommodate the growing need for nursing education.	Merced CA	$4,000
Saddleback College	Funds would be used to help students develop job readiness skills by systematically and systemically integrating hands-on learning opportunities into coursework and campus-wide resource placement.	Mission Viejo CA	$1,500
Saddleback College	Funds would be used to develop and launch three employer-driven career training programs and outfit classrooms with technology and equipment to give students the skills to succeed in their careers.	Mission Viejo CA	$500
CASA of Los Angeles	Funding would expand the One-to-One Advocacy Program, which provides crucial advocacy by ensuring that systems-impacted children have a consistent and dedicated advocate, which results in more medical, mental health, educational services for the child.	Monterey Park CA	$973
Centro de Salud de la Comunidad de San Ysidro, Inc. (doing business as San Ysidro Health)	Funding will be used to establish a 46,000 square feet health facility and purchase furniture, fixture, and equipment.	National City CA	$3,078
CureDuchenne	Funds would be used to establish a state-of-the-art clinic to address the unmet needs of individuals and families battling Duchenne muscular dystrophy.	Newport Beach CA	$2,500

The University Corporation, California State University, Northridge	Funds would be used to support the technology and equipment needs of the Matador Success and Inclusion Center (MSIC), which will house multiple student support entities.	Northridge CA	$1,860
Fred Finch Youth & Family Services	Funding will be used to expand capacity to deliver Title IV-E-funded trainings related to the emotional and behavioral health of foster youth to Alameda County-based organizations.	Oakland CA	$500
Peralta Community College District	Funds would be used to build the capacity of PCCD's Manufacturing and Fabrication Pathway Fabrication Lab (FabLab) facilities, which provide students with access to the tools and experience required for successful digital fabrication careers.	Oakland CA	$986
North County Health Project DBA TrueCare	Funds will support a new campus location to provide preventive, equitable healthcare for the local community, including medical care and dental care.	Oceanside CA	$1,000
North County LGBTQ Resource Center	Funds would be used to expand the North County LGBTQ Resource Center, which seeks to address mental health, educational, and social equity through a variety of programs.	Oceanside CA	$3,000
Children's Hospital of Orange County	Funds would be used to support the establishment of the Children's Hospital of Orange County Mental Health Home to expand and diversify mental health services for vulnerable youth.	Orange CA	$2,000
Orange County Health Authority (dba CalOptima Health)	Funds would be used to identify gaps and shortages in Orange County's safety net behavioral health provider workforce that serves Medi-Cal beneficiaries; this program aims to increase the supply and diversity of behavioral health care workers by empowering individuals from underserved communities.	Orange County CA	$5,000
Los Angeles Mission College	Funding would support the Pacoima Center in implementing a program that will empower underserved communities with labor/workforce development activities to improve the lives of underserved families and women.	Pacoima CA	$2,383
City of Palm Desert	Funds would be used to implement a mobile response unit for the City to establish a mental health mobile crisis response program integrated into the dispatch center.	Palm Desert CA	$1,000
Reedley Community Hospital	Funds would be used to expand mobile care services, which include free COVID testing, vaccinations, and health screenings.	Reedley CA	$1,000
Motivated 2 Help Others	Funding will support teaching young people ages 11-18 how to create games through coding.	Richmond CA	$100
Keyz 2 The Future	Funds will be used to empower young individuals impacted by gun violence by providing them with essential skills and resources to become successful entrepreneurs and leaders in their communities.	Richmond, Vallejo, and Oakland CA	$100
Ridgecrest Regional Hospital	Funding will go to enhancing rural mental health care services and providing comprehensive local behavioral health resources.	Ridgecrest CA	$2,000
Inland Economic Growth & Opportunity	Funds would be used to establish a transformative Economic Development Corporation (EDC) in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties, aiming to address the region's acute employment and training needs.	Riverside CA	$2,000

Riverside Community College District	Funds would be used to empower marginalized communities through entrepreneurship and innovation by prioritizing education and skills development; RCCD seeks to diversify the region's economy and break the cycle of poverty.	Riverside CA	$3,000
City of Roseville, California	Funding will deliver modern broadband Internet infrastructure to the twenty one Adventure Club sites.	Roseville CA	$2,800
Partnership for Children and Youth	Funds would support evaluating and implementing solutions to California's educator and school-age care workforce shortage, a crisis that impacts tens of thousands of students who may miss out on publicly funded afterschool and summer learning programs.	Sacramento CA	$1,046
Carrie's TOUCH	Funds would be used to purchase a treatment facility, scale up staff capacity, and expand technology efforts to address the disproportionate impact of breast cancer on Black women.	Sacramento CA	$5,000
Los Rios Community College District	Funds will expand Los Rios Community College District's adult learners program, including four apprenticeship programs aimed at the adult and post-traditional student population.	Sacramento CA	$1,620
Riverside Community College District	Funds would be used to train and provide technology to 40 additional CCCs and up to 10 CSU, UC, or private universities and develop new CPL for apprenticeships, industry certificates, and licenses, noncredit to credit, regional occupational programs, incarcerated learning, etc.	Sacramento CA	$6,000
California State University, Sacramento	Funds would be used to support the Charging the Future for Underserved Communities initiative, which is part of a larger effort to build a first-of-its-kind energy, power, and innovation hub on the campus of California State University, Sacramento.	Sacramento CA	$2,000
University of the Pacific	Funds would be used to provide collaborative, patient-centered care to populations who might otherwise face significant healthcare barriers.	Sacramento, San Francisco, and Stockton CA	$1,153
Calaveras County Health and Human Services Agency	Funds support the construction of a new Rural Public Health Center in a remote, mountainous, rural area to address public health needs and serve as a safety net for children, older adults and families.	San Andreas CA	$3,000
SAC Health	Funds would be used to improve the health of low-income, minority women in the Inland Empire through health education, group visits, and addressing the social determinants of health.	San Bernardino CA	$1,500
Rady Children's Hospital	Funds will be used to integrate primary care and mental health care by embedding mental health clinicians in pediatric primary care practices for easy, same-day access for pediatric patients.	San Diego CA	$2,000
Monarch School Project	Funds would be used to expand services for unhoused youth in San Diego, including trauma-informed mental health services.	San Diego CA	$708
San Diego State University Foundation	Funding will support a bilingual mobile research platform designed to improve maternal health, reduce health disparities and improve healthy pregnancies and deliveries.	San Diego CA	$1,634
La Maestra Family Clinic, Inc.	Funds would provide needed software upgrades and maintain servers to update the clinic's data infrastructure and allow the clinic to continue providing telemedicine care.	San Diego CA	$250

County of San Diego	Funding will support a permanent new PHL facility to provide the people of San Diego County the health and environmental safety they deserve.	San Diego CA	$5,000
Rainbow Spaces	Funding will create a home for LGBTQ+ youth that is centralized and accessible in their community and school districts.	San Diego CA	$1,000
Jacobs and Cushman San Diego Food Bank	Funding will be used for the purchase, storage and distribution of urgent and essential supplies, such as diapers, wipes and ointments and feminine period supplies to help advance pathways to financial self-sufficiency.	San Diego CA	$1,500
United Way of San Diego	Funds would be used to support the United Way of San Diego County's comprehensive set of initiatives that support San Diegans across the lifespan in moving toward thriving.	San Diego CA	$1,500
University of San Diego	Funds would be used to address the nurse shortage crisis in the U.S., with California projected to face a deficit of over 44,000 nurses by 2030.	San Diego CA	$950
Career Girls	Funding would be used to support the Career Girls Club pilot program, which provides accredited K-12 public schools with a free, all-inclusive program, including lesson plans, measurement and evaluation tools, activities, supplies, and training to expand students' career possibilities.	San Francisco CA	$100
San Francisco Community Clinic Consortium	Funding will be used to support the needs of ten partner health centers across the San Francisco Community Clinic Consortium (SFCCC), including equipment purchases, and expansion of behavioral health services and dental care.	San Francisco CA	$2,700
San Francisco General Hospital Foundation (SFGHF)	Funds would extend comprehensive, high-quality primary care services to an additional 3,000 patients a year via a newly developed Family Health Center (FHC).	San Francisco CA	$4,000
San Francisco State University	Funds would be used to integrate professional competencies into the academic curriculum and undergrad research activities aimed at bolstering student success and narrowing equity gaps.	San Francisco CA	$200
University of San Francisco	Funds would be used to provide various mental health services to Bay Area communities and expand equitable access to care through the Center for Holistic Health.	San Francisco CA	$1,000
San Francisco General Hospital Foundation (SFGHF)	Funding will be used to continue providing and expanding its psychiatric emergency service offerings.	San Francisco CA	$750
San Francisco State University	Funding will go to improving the experience of veteran students at SF State by implementing a university-wide approach to providing credit for military experience, automating the review of service transcripts.	San Francisco CA	$526
Futures Without Violence	Funding will support a education program for students, teachers, and administrators inspires and equips individuals to rethink the causes.	San Francisco CA	$2,000
Farming Hope	Funding will be used to help empower adults facing major barriers to finding personal well-being and life-sustaining employment while nourishing food-insecure neighbors and rescuing food from going to waste.	San Francisco CA	$500

United Way of the Bay Area	Funds would be used to support building and maintaining a modern data architecture and analytics infrastructure to provide advanced modeling, data visualization, and dashboarding capabilities for the purposes of strengthening the 211 service for Bay Area residents.	San Francisco CA	$385
Friends of the Children - SF Bay Area	Funding will support strategic efforts to reduce gaps in academic achievement for children experiencing multiple adverse childhood experiences.	San Francisco, San Joaquin, Riverside and Los Angeles counties CA	$950
San Joaquin County	Funds would be used to establish the first youth substance abuse residential program in the San Joaquin Valley.	San Joaquin County CA	$4,596
San Joaquin County	Funds would be used to provide personalized, on-site support services for elderly, disabled, indigent, blind, and working Veterans.	San Joaquin County CA	$401
Pivotal Connections	Funds would be used to provide individualized academic and employment coaching, college scholarships, career exploration, and employment opportunities to foster youth as they navigate the critical years from high school to college and into the workforce.	San Jose CA	$1,400
YMCA of Silicon Valley	Funding will support a youth-informed, early-intervention program guided by qualified mental health professionals to help teens and young adults manage stress and anxiety.	San Jose CA	$736
Bay Area Community Health	Funds would be used to complete a build out of the Bay Area Community Health McKee Health Clinic, enabling the clinic to serve a larger number of patients and reduce wait times.	San Jose CA	$3,500
Teach For America Bay Area	Funds would be used to recruit and train approximately 61 tutors to provide virtual tutoring over two semesters as part of the Teach For America Bay Area Ignite Tutoring Fellowship.	San Jose CA	$240
On Lok	Funds would be used to purchase and install two emergency backup generators to ensure health services for low-income seniors will continue during extreme weather events.	San Jose and Union City CA	$984
Asian Health Services	Funds would be used to ensure vulnerable, chronically ill seniors receive comprehensive quality care; AHS plans to construct a Program for All-inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) center.	San Leandro CA	$1,750
California State University San Marcos	Funds will support palliative care integration and inter-professional education into healthcare profession degree programs across California State University system campuses.	San Marcos CA	$1,496
University of Saint Katherine	Funding will go to addressing the significant dropout rates among underserved STEM students by designing new curricula focused on preparing them for the life sciences workforce.	San Marcos CA	$710
AltaSea at the Port of Los Angeles	Funds would be used to support an oceanographic research, education, and community engagement campus focused on collaboration to develop solutions critical to climate and environmental problems.	San Pedro CA	$1,256
Mary's Shelter DBA Mary's Path	Funds would be used to provide teen moms from the foster system with a home to safely heal from abuse, abandonment, and violence.	Santa Ana CA	$376

City of Santa Ana	Funds would be used to expand apprenticeship opportunities for residents by covering tuition and related costs for up to 80 participants.	Santa Ana CA	$600
UC Santa Barbara	Funds would be used to train principals, school psychologists, and counselors to create a trauma-informed climate that supports teachers with their own self-care and resilience.	Santa Barbara CA	$1,200
City of Santa Clara	Funds would be to support expansion of mental health/crisis services through increased equipment, training, and personnel.	Santa Clara CA	$1,936
Santa Clarita Community College District	Funds support the purchase of firefighting equipment and tools necessary to launch a new Regional Fire Academy and to meet state fire marshal accreditation standards.	Santa Clarita CA	$2,159
Santa Clarita Community College District	Funding will support equipment and supplies to launch, expand, and complete urgently-needed Allied Health training programs. The project will predominantly serve economically disadvantaged individuals.	Santa Clarita CA	$2,992
Henry Mayo Newhall Hospital	Funds would be used to provide needed equipment upgrades to the current roster of equipment within the Emergency Room/Trauma Center.	Santa Clarita CA	$2,583
Allan Hancock Joint Community College District	Funds would be used to construct an additional nursing teaching facility on the Allan Hancock College Campus, which will support the provision of more bilingual nurses to the region through the addition of lab space, classrooms, computer labs, simulation labs, and space.	Santa Maria CA	$3,500
City of Santa Monica	Funding will support a commercial food education and preparation facility which will serve as a small business incubator and is designed to assist entrepreneurs as they develop a range of food-based businesses in Santa Monica.	Santa Monica CA	$500
Ready to Succeed	Funding would be used for a holistic workforce development model for foster youth to beat the high odds of unemployment and underemployment by preparing them for well-paying careers.	Santa Monica CA	$1,535
Aldea Children & Family Services, Inc.	Funding would go to establish a permanent facility for its Supportive Outreach and Access to Resources (SOAR) and Trauma Recovery Services (TRS) programs.	Santa Rosa CA	$1,500
Sonora Community Hospital	Funds would be used to modernize its diagnostic imaging equipment through the acquisition and installation of a new positron emission tomography (PET) integrated with computed tomography.	Sonora CA	$1,000
Yosemite Community College District	Funds would be used to equip interested students with a range of occupational skills to help them help others and save lives.	Sonora CA	$450
California State University, Stanislaus	Funds would support a pilot program to expand the CSU Stanislaus Nurse Practitioner Program and create two subspecialties - Psychiatric Mental Health and Geriatrics.	Stanislaus CA	$748
Alliance for Community Wellness	Funds would be used to deploy a school-centered approach in two rural districts in Stanislaus County, Patterson USD (PUSD) and Riverbank USD (RUSD), which were selected because of significant risk factors for school violence.	Stanislaus County CA	$438

County of Stanislaus	Funds would be used to expand mental health academic programs in the limited number of internship placements in mental health organizations, both County and contractor-operated.	Stanislaus County CA	$1,482
Association for Professionals in Infection Control and Epidemiology	Funds would be used to develop an accelerated pathway to train experts in infection prevention and control by partnering with education institutions in the fields of public health, epidemiology, medical technology, nursing, microbiology, or epidemiology.	State-wide CA	$300
Tierra del Sol Foundation	Funding will support Tierra's programs to shift employment outcomes for adults with disabilities in the region.	Sunland CA	$153
El Camino Community College District	Funds would be used to expand offerings to help place members of our community onto career pathways that lead to living wage jobs.	Torrance CA	$1,500
El Camino Community College District	Funding will be used for training equipment for firefighters to ensure that they are prepared to respond to emergencies and protect their community.	Torrance CA	$1,000
Eastmont Community Center	Funding will support the demolition and ground up construction of the Eastmont Community Center.	Unincorporated East Los Angeles CA	$10,000
Lady Echelon Project, Inc	Funds would be used to equip young individuals from under-resourced communities with the necessary tools to achieve economic independence.	Vallejo, Oakland, Richmond CA	$105
Valley Presbyterian Hospital	Funding will support Valley Presbyterian Hospital's relocation its Central Utility Plant (CUP).	Van Nuys CA	$5,000
Vista Community Clinic	Funds would be used to support the Vista Community Clinic (VCC), a Federally Qualified Health Center based in San Diego County, that has an urgent need for an array of IT, medical, optometry, and dental equipment.	Vista CA	$1,500
Mt. San Antonio Community College District	Funds would be used to enhance and expand Mt. San Antonio College's health programs to prepare students for high-growth and high-wage occupations.	Walnut CA	$2,607
Emanate Health Foundation	Funds would be used to support a new Emergency Department-Intensive Care Unit in the state's most socioeconomically and culturally diverse communities.	West Covina CA	$2,000
Mendocino Community Health Clinic, Inc. (MCHC)	Funds would be used to address resilience to environmental and potentially disastrous climate-related occurrences using innovative design and new technologies.	Willits CA	$13,000
County of Yolo	Funds would be used for innovative countywide crisis and sobering systems of care to address the growing mental health, substance abuse, and homeless crisis impacting California.	Woodland CA	$2,000